

McDowell County Community Resource Guide

This list is a collection of resources available to McDowell County residents compiled and verified by the MATCH Program (McDowell Access to Health and Care) with their social work intern through Western Carolina University. It does not represent all public services within McDowell County, nor does it cover all services available to McDowell County residents located outside the county. The service providers listed did not pay to be added, nor is this list a recommendation for any provider. To add or change a listing, please contact 828-659-5289 or email amy.vaughn2@hcahealthcare.com.
